Note: Save this document to your computer as a WORD document. After completion, attach the WORD document to an email and send it to your supervisor. At the end of the unit open this document and complete your final self-evaluation.

Each student must complete two self-evaluations during the course of his or her unit. The mid-unit evaluation is due at week 6. The final evaluation is due at week 12. These evaluations are for the purpose of measuring the student's progress towards successful completion of the required learning center knowledge competencies and learning objectives and to measure successful progress in meeting the Crossroads School of Chaplaincy CPE personal and professional competencies. These self-evaluations are not optional. All students must complete these evaluations to pass the unit.

GENERAL QUESTIONS:

To be answered at both the mid-unit and on the final evaluation:

- 1. Write about some of the core concepts you have found helpful thus far in the reading you are doing, in the didactic sessions, or in your learning from the ministry context in which you are working.
